DECEMBER ANNIVERSARIES WILL BE HONORED

From the Station of the Exalted Ruler

Rhonda Rogers

Hello folks,

Even though this is the last month of 2017, and a short one at that, we at the Auburn Elks have lots of activities to look forward to. In addition to the Taco Tuesdays and Wednesday lunches, the December birthday dinner will be on the first Friday of the month, December 1st. The Christmas Light parade will be Saturday, December 2nd. Come join in the fun and see our Auburn Elks Christmas Float decorated by members of our Lodge, on a committee headed by Wayne Helley.

Our Annual Elks Memorial Ritual will be held immediately after our breakfast on Sunday, December 3rd at 1:00. It is a beautiful ceremony where we Elks and family members acknowledge our fallen members of the past year. Please join us in this touching candle-lighting tribute.

The Wreaths Across America organization with the help of the Auburn Elks will be placing living wreaths on the grave sites of our Veterans at both the old and the new Auburn cemeteries on Saturday, December 16th at 9 am. Come show your support and love for our American Veterans.

Then, of course, there is our annual New Year's Eve dinner/dance on December 31st. Our theme this year is the fabulous era of the Roaring 20s. Come join in the celebration of bringing in 2018 with excellent food prepared by our amazing Chef Scott and dancing to the music of Spare Parts. Chances are you will walk away with a half pig, prepared and packaged for your freezer.

Loyal Knight - Kathy Madeiros

Soon to be Happy Holidays. I hope that you have plans to spend time with your friends and family for the upcoming Holidays

For me 2017 has been a blur, so much going on each and every day. I am very excited to see what 2018 will bring for all of us. As Elks, we try to do things for those people in need. Around this time of year, every bit of money or time donated is considered extra special. Without a lot of fanfare, we quietly go about the dedication and tireless work required by so many. That's what we do!

I wanted to personally thank everyone again who helped to make the Fashion Show a success this year. Not only did we have fun, but we raised $1,100.00 for ENF with the raffles that were held.

See you at the Lodge,
Kathy Madeiros, PER

Elk of the Month - Larry LaVerne

Larry LaVerne is a relatively new member of our Auburn Elks. He took on the position of Chaplain and has agreed to continue next year as Lecturing Knight. He has been very involved in many aspects of Elksdom including the Veterans programs, co-chairing committees with Paula Celick, and lending his skills as photographer and moviemaker for the events in our Lodge like the fashion show, Sock Hop dance, and Veteran's Day parade. He visualizes and promotes the fun and dedication of our Lodge. Thank you, Larry. Keep up the good work!

A VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS CRAFT FAIRE

The Christmas 2017 Craft Faire was a very fruitful endeavor for Auburn Elks. The Team raised $530.00 for our Lodges Veterans fund.

We changed it up a bit this year making it elegant and edgy. The customers came, bought treasures for themselves and others, ate wonderful desserts, stayed, visited and bought some more! We offered art, pottery, clothing, purses, handmade hunting knives, food, jewelry, new ideas and more. No one seemed to be in a rush to leave, always a good sign.

I'd like to thank Paula Celick, Joann Boston, Linda Meylink, and Larry La Verne, who sang his heart out and, all the wonderful folks who arrived early, stayed late, worked hard and always had a smile for our vendors and customers. Blessings to each of you and please know how very much I appreciate all you do.

As I write this article I am looking forward to the Thanksgiving Holiday and the opportunity it provides to spend time with family and friends. When this is published, and you are reading it, we will all most likely be recovering from a little too much Thanksgiving dinner or perhaps a day of relentless shopping, and looking forward to the Christmas Holiday. This can be an exhausting time of year but also a wonderful opportunity to spread good cheer and truly embrace one of our four major principles or virtues. The virtue I speak of is Charity. The Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks provides a number of ways for us to support the members of our community that can use our help throughout the year, but this is especially true at this time of year. Please consider bringing an unwrapped toy or nonperishable food to the Lodge to support the Auburn Christmas Basket Program. You should all have received a booklet of raffle tickets for the Purple Pig raffle. Purchasing these tickets or selling them to friends is one of our major fundraisers for the State Major Project which supports the physical therapy needs of those in our community that would otherwise be underserved. More tickets are available at the Lodge if you need them. You can also be charitable with your time. Please let me know if you have any interest in helping or chairing one of our committees or serving as one of the Lodge officers in the 2018-19 Elk year. I am in the process of trying to fill all our committee chairs and there are still a couple officer positions open. As a volunteer organization, we are all needed to keep this Lodge open and functioning. There is a line in the initiation ceremony that I think perfectly conveys the message that I am trying to get across here and that is: "As Elks, we teach not alone the charity of alms, but the higher and nobler charity of thought, word, and deed". Please let this thought guide you as you spread goodwill through what may be some hectic times this Holiday Season.

I wish you all a Merry Christmas and Happy New year. Cheers, Jack

CHAPLAIN'S CORNER†

Chaplain's corner – Larry LaVerne

As I sit at my PC and write this note to my friends, I am listening to beautiful classical guitar music. Not sure what my subject would be today, it occurs to me to speak of the beautiful music that is all around us, every day. Not necessarily the music of a guitar or orchestra, but the music of life. The beauty and sounds of our friends and those we care about. While attending Elks functions I marvel at the music of voices and the dance of folks moving from table to table. I stand back and feel the warmth of friendship, and hear the beautiful music of laughter and connections being made. God has given us the gift of sight and sound, so we can take in the joy of friendship and laughter. Yes, the music of laughter fills me with joy and warmth. Laugh more, enjoy your friends, love those who love you, it's a gift.

"Laughter is a powerful antidote to stress, pain, and conflict. Nothing works faster or more dependably to bring your mind and body back into balance than a good laugh". (helpguide.org)

Father, help me to experience the music of my friends. Open my ears to the sounds of their laughter and the stories of their lives. Bless me with the attendance to who each and every one is. Give me the insight to listen and contemplate the wonders of those around me. Everyone has a story, help me to listen and feel the presence of these wonderful friends. Amen.

Public Safety Awards Dinner and Presentation

Our Public Safety Awards Dinner was standing room only and we set up extra tables to help accommodate our huge crowd. It was so heartwarming to see how our community came out to honor the men & women of our public safety service receive their well-deserved awards.

Auburn Elks Lodge honored 12 public safety officers at their 33rd annual Public Safety Awards Dinner and Presentation, held Thursday, November 16th. A full house honored the outstanding personnel of 2017 from each local department, including Auburn Fire, Auburn Police; CAL Fire; CHP; Foresthill Fire; Newcastle Fire; Penryn Fire; Placer County Sherriff's Office; Placer Hills Fire; South Placer Fire; and US Forestry/American River Ranger District Hot Shot Crew.

Retired Chief Ian Gow received a standing ovation for his 30 plus years serving Placer Hills, Newcastle, and Foresthill Fire departments.

Each recipient was presented a plaque honoring them for their outstanding service and dedication to the citizens of Placer County, 2017. A special thank you to our members who sponsored tables to help defray costs to honor each individual recipient and their spouses. The menu was pork loin, chicken, salad, vegetables, and dessert. Without your sponsorship, this event would not be possible.

Thank you to Chef Scott and his crew for all the great food and hard work. You did a great job with the huge crowd. I think we fed approximately 190 or more. What a fabulous turnout for this event.

Thank you also to our committee, Rudy & Patty Pelzman, Jim & Vicki Harris, Maralee Gouldthread, Diana Hart, and Chuck Cooper. Getting tables set up and greeting awards recipients and guests ran very smoothly. Also, Larry Laverne did a great job taking pictures of the event, while our Exalted Ruler Rhonda Rodgers led the pledge of allegiance and assisted in getting all the guests seated.

We don't want to miss a thank you to our bartenders Rex Gouldthread and Dave Provan, we kept them busy.

Thank you to my wife Judi. She did all the organizing and paperwork to make our job easier before leaving for Michigan to watch our grandkids.

Veterans Corner

November was Veterans month. I trust that you visited the Lodge this past month and saw the Veterans wall of honor that was on display all month. Hopefully, next year we'll be able to expand it to another panel of Veterans from our Lodge. We celebrated two other events, our Lodge's annual Veterans luncheon on the 10th and the Veterans Day Parade on the 11th.

We fed about 167 Veterans, guests, and volunteers on the 10th. This was our best turnout ever and the feedback was that this was extremely successful. A number of people expressed their appreciation. At the end of a long and tiring day, I had a big smile on my contented face. I would like to extend a heartfelt thank you to those who volunteered to decorate and help during the lunch as well as the clean-up. They were Wil & BettyJo Thomas, Dempsey Billie, Jack & Linda Meylink, Yvonne Edwards, Rita Parrish, Patty Pelzman, Manny Martinez, and Chuck Cooper. Thanx to our bartenders Rex Gouldthread and Harlan Moore.

On Veterans Day the Lodge provided the cooking crew at the Gold Country Fairgrounds cooking hot dogs for the light lunch which included chips, cookies, and soda or water, all of which was free to those in attendance. Once again, everything was consumed. I would like to express my gratitude to the volunteers, Dempsey Billie, Debbie Lund, Katherine Stoltenberg, Tom Hart, Nancy Vogel, Val Montgomery, Wil & BettyJo Thomas, Jim & Barbara Broderick, Rex & Maralee Gouldthread, Dave & Val Provan, as well as Patty Pelzman.

This month we will be celebrating the Wreaths Across America event on December 16 at the main Auburn cemetery (1040 Collins Dr, Auburn) at 9 am. Over 1200 wreaths will have been placed on the graves of Veterans interred there. There will be a flyover and a short ceremony at that time. Try to attend as this is usually a very moving experience. If you purchased a wreath and would like to personally place it on the grave of your loved one, please arrive early in the 8 o'clock hour to do so.

December is a very tough month for our service men and women stationed in the Middle East in harm's way. They are a long way from their families and friends. We have the privilege of spending the holidays in the warmth and comfort of our homes while their surroundings are harsh, to say the least. Please keep them in your thoughts and prayers this month.

Remember, our American flag stands for freedom to all in this country. Stand for the flag and our National Anthem and kneel for God.

Auburn Elks RV Club Happenings

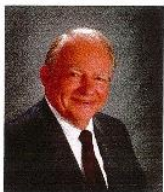

Our outings have come to the 2017 end. The season ended with our "General Meeting" Friday October 13th. The slate of officers was elected for their third term and many new ideas for outings were discussed.

Our last outing was to Calistoga, one of our favorites! That being said we all know what is happening in the Wine Country so we will not be returning next year. We had a great time with some of us experiencing something new. We visited Safari West where we were right in with many of the animals living there.

New locations being considered are Berry Creek near Oroville, Coachman near Truckee, Santa Cruz Redwood RV in Felton, and Oceana Elks for 5 to 6 days.

For those members who missed the dinner and general meeting, we missed your input but you can always contact one of the officers or trustees with suggestions.

Reminder to all members or anyone wanting to join, the annual dues of $20 were due October 1st and delinquent January 1st. Please register soon so we can plan our attendance at the upcoming outings.
